

CIVIC PRIDE

GLENDALE CITIZENS EXHIBIT LARGE DEGREE OF PEP IN ENTERTAINING VISITORS

Strangers who have visited Glendale during the past week have made special mention of the noticeable civic pride possessed by our citizens. One man, in speaking to a representative of The Evening News on this question, said, "It has done me good as a visitor to see the real live spirit demonstrated by your citizens." As he thus spoke he pointed to a badge lying on the counter, that read: "I Live In Glendale. Ask Me," and then he referred to the little card on which was printed "1920 Census Champion. Glendale, 393 per cent," the reverse side of which contained the words, "Welcome to Our City." He further stated that everybody seemed to be proud of the city in which they lived.

In conversation with other visitors the same opinion seemed to prevail—that we are a set of real unselfish boosters, and the remark was made by a stranger "everybody seems to be pleased to wear a badge of some kind to let us know that he belongs to Glendale." Various flattering remarks were made of the courtesy shown by the ladies and their gentlemen assistants at headquarters, south of the Pacific Electric station. The arrangement of the large banners, the roomy counter for the display of literature, and the activity of those handing it out were all items of favorable comment. The automobiles on our streets bearing banners, "National Tractor Show, Verdugo Woodlands, Glendale. Free Automobile Rides for Visitors." These were typical of the life and pep displayed everywhere by our citizens.

The National Tractor Show, which has been a unique event in Glendale's history, closes tomorrow, giving satisfaction to all who have availed themselves of its educational advantages. While it is a known fact that the manufacturing companies have this plan of coming together for publicity purposes, yet there was an opportunity presented in this instance for Glendale to show a progressive spirit and let the visitors attending the show know what a beautiful foothill city is located in the eastern part of the San Fernando Valley.

Miss Nichols Married

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Margaret Nichols, daughter of Mrs. Wm. Nichols of the Monte Vista apartments, to J. Stanley Ross of Coalinga, Cal. Mrs. Ross is a graduate of the Glendale High School and of the University of California. Mr. Ross is a Stanford graduate. The young couple will make their home in Coalinga, following a two weeks' trip by auto to San Francisco and Palo Alto. Mr. Ross is a geologist for the Associated Oil Company in Coalinga.

Opens Law Offices

John Everson, who a few months ago moved into Glendale from 6th and Grand View avenue, buying Thas. L. Chandler's home at 611 N. Central avenue, has taken up again the practice of law which he followed for 30 years in Nebraska. He was county judge of Harland county, that state, for a number of years and also served for a time as city attorney of the county seat town, Albia. Mr. Everson has opened offices in the Flower block, upstairs, and his life assists him as notary and conveyancer.

MOTHERS' CLUB

CACIA AVENUE SCHOOL CLUB HOLDS FIRST MEETING OF YEAR

The first of the monthly meetings of the Mothers' Club of the Acacia avenue school, was held at the school building Friday, September 24. The meeting was called to order by the resident, Mrs. Esselmann. The following were appointed chairmen of the various committees: Membership, Mrs. Hartman; finance, Mrs. Bennett; philanthropy, Mrs. Strong; patriotism, Mrs. Alexander; educational, Mrs. Windsor; juvenile court and child welfare, Mrs. Hanquet; courtesy, Miss Cook; visiting, Mrs. Ehrenhart; publicity, Miss Forrest; emblems and magazines, Mrs. McNutt. Miss Gertrude Forrest entertained the members with a humorous selection which was greatly enjoyed by all present. Mrs. Kline gave a short talk on emblems and magazines. A special hour followed after which refreshments were served and the others became better acquainted with one another.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE

PAUL HUTCHINSON'S SIXTEENTH BIRTHDAY THUS CELEBRATED LAST NIGHT

One of the most brilliant social events of the season was enjoyed by Glendale young people Friday evening, when Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Hutchinson, of 246 North Orange, entertained friends of their son, Paul, at a dinner party in honor of his sixteenth birthday.

The party came as a complete surprise to Paul. He had been invited for a birthday dinner by Mrs. E. D. Yard, 427 North Maryland avenue, but soon after he arrived there, he received a telephone message from his mother to come home in a hurry. On his return, he found a number of gaily dressed young friends waiting for him. He was presented with a gold ever-sharp pencil by the girls, and a gold-banded fountain pen by the boys.

The guests were then invited in to dinner, the color scheme of which was yellow. Beautiful French marginals were used in the decorations. The centerpiece was yellow, covered with lace; attractive place cards, and other appointments also carried out the note of color. A formal course dinner was served.

After the dinner, Miss Doris Packer of 362 Riverdale Drive gave a number of recitations. The living room was then cleared, and the young people danced.

Those enjoying this delightful occasion were: Misses Doris Packer, Evelyn Gregg, Virginia Huntley, Evelyn Apple, Betty Fell, Eleanor Sawyer, and Messrs Robert McCourt, Walter Yard, Wilfred Cline, Robert White and Waldo Cowan.

Return North

Duke Powell and wife, who accompanied F. W. Miller and wife in an auto trip from the Yakima Valley, which resulted in the Millers locating in Glendale, were over to see their old neighbors, Thursday, coming from Redlands, where they had been visiting. They had intended locating in Southern California, but at Redlands Mr. Powell received a telegram offering him a high-salaried position in the home city, so they started back yesterday, in their machine.

Milford Card Club

The Milford Card Club held its first meeting of the season at the home of Mrs. Reed Heustis, Brand and Arden avenue, yesterday. The house was beautifully decorated with dahlias, and the meeting was unusually enjoyable. All the members were present. First and second prizes for top scores were won by Mrs. C. H. Thompson, 348 Milford, and Mrs. Horace G. Hosford, 233 N. Central avenue. Delicious cakes and cream were served. Mrs. Hosford will entertain the club in two weeks.

SCOUTS JOLLIFY

TROOP 2, 31 STRONG, HOLDS CAMPFIRE AT C. L. CHANDLER HOME

Friday night thirty-one members of Boy Scout Troop No. 2 assembled at the home of their scoutmaster, B. Robinson, 407 North Louise, accompanied by Assistant Scout Executive H. B. Robinson. At 6:30, after a short business meeting, the Scouts marched to the G. & M. Railway station and boarded a special car for the home of Charles L. Chandler in Selvas de Verdugo. They had been invited by Mr. and Mrs. Chandler to come out and be their guests. A jolly campfire was started and the boys ate toasted marshmallows and doughnuts, and drank lemonade to their hearts' content. Then came songs and yells until the woods fairly rang with the sounds. Following this a few stunts, tricks and a little jiu jitsu were shown. The Ham Actors' Association gave a play, then the Scouts all gathered around the campfire, gave the Scout oath and sang the last verse of "America," after which the car was boarded for home. They are to have orchestra practice tonight.

All are grateful to Mr. Hatch of the Glendale & Montrose Railway for furnishing them with the special car.

Dominic Ruggiero of 320 Arden avenue has written the Evening News from Balboa to change his paper back to the home address. He says he and the family have had a good time and a fine rest, but are homesick for Glendale, so are cutting their visit short.

DENTON MURDER MYSTERY

JAMES W. CROWHURST, MEMBER OF OLD "JIM CROW GANG" HELD; MRS. PEETE COMING

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
LOS ANGELES, Sept. 25.—Efforts to solve the mystery connected with the murder of Jacob C. Denton, wealthy mining man, today centered about statements made by Jas. W. Crowhurst, a plumber, who yesterday admitted to police having nailed up the small compartment in the basement of Denton's home where his body was found. He did so at the bidding of Mrs. R. C. Peete, former housekeeper, according to his sworn statement.

Crowhurst was not under arrest today. He will be summoned to testify before the Grand Jury.

Detective Captain Moffatt today declared Crowhurst had served a sentence in Folsom prison, following his conviction for robbery in Alameda county in 1905.

Crowhurst was a member of the notorious old "Jim Crow Gang," which operated in Oakland during that year, Moffatt said. He was paroled from Folsom in 1908.

Crowhurst's statement said he had done various jobs around the Denton home from June to August. His name was brought to the attention of authorities through a real estate company with whom he had listed the Denton house for sale some time ago. This was done for Mrs. Peete, he said.

No arrests have been made in the murder case, police said today. Detectives were running down half a dozen theories, among which was the theory that the murder was a conspiracy to gain possession of Denton's property.

Denton's divorced wife, and daughter, Frances, arrived here from Phoenix, Arizona, last night. They were unable to give authorities any additional information.

DENVER, Colo., Sept. 25.—Mrs. R. C. Peete, former housekeeper in the Denton home in Los Angeles, will go there voluntarily to tell of her relations with Denton, she said today. Mrs. Peete denied the story that Jas. Crowhurst, plumber, had been hired to nail up the death chamber, but admitted having hired him to do various odd jobs.

TRAIN ROBBERY NEAR CHICAGO

MASKED BANDITS ESCAPE WITH SIX SACKS OF REGISTERED MAIL; BIND MAIL CLERKS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—Masked bandits robbed the mail cars of an Illinois Central flyer as the train approached Chicago early today, escaping with six sacks of registered mail. The loot was variously estimated to be valued between $10,000 and $80,000.

The robbers boarded the train at Tucker, Illinois, and bound five mail clerks. They left the train at the outskirts of Chicago, and are believed to have escaped in automobiles.

Mail clerks said they thought the robbers were members of the same gang which robbed the same train six months ago, when Leroy Walton was shot to death in a Chicago apartment house and $85,000 in loot recovered.

Several suspects have been arrested.

ATTEMPTED ASSASSINATION AT CORK

SHOTS FIRED AT MAJOR GENERAL STRICKLAND AS HE PASSES THROUGH STREETS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
DUBLIN, Sept. 25.—Sinn Feiners attempted to assassinate Major General Strickland at Cork last night, according to dispatches received here. While Strickland was passing through the streets in an automobile, assassins fired several shots, wounding his chauffeur. The general escaped unharmed. The Sinn Feiners escaped.

The coroner's inquest into the death of County Councillor Lynch, killed in a hotel room, was ordered by the government today. General Macready said Lynch had been slain after he had attempted to shoot military police.

BODY OF OLIVE THOMAS ARRIVES

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—The body of Olive Thomas, motion picture actress who died from poisoning in Paris recently, was brought here today on board the steamer Mauretania, accompanied by Jack Pickford and Owen Moore.

DENVER BOMB WARNING

DENVER, Colo., Sept. 25.—Police today were investigating an alleged bomb plot warning which was sent to officials of the Denver Tramway Company yesterday. The warning, which was written on a postcard, said "One swift, painless killing, and an unquarous explosion will take place in the near future."

REDS CONCENTRATE AT GRODNO

RIGA, Sept. 25.—Resumption of Polish-Russian hostilities on a large scale was eminent today following the report that the Russians were concentrating troops near Grodno.

GLEN EYRIE CHAPTER

ENTERTAINS MATRONS AND PATRONS FROM NEIGHBORING CITIES

One of the most enjoyable meetings of Glen Eyrie Chapter No. 237, O. E. S., occurred last evening when the Matrons and Patrons of 1920 were their guests. There were about 200 members and visitors in attendance. The guests included Mrs. Louise May Emsenoh of Los Angeles, who is the present Grand Worthy Matron of the State of California; Dr. Dora Hammer of San Francisco, who is the present Grand Conductress; several present and past Grand Matrons and Patrons from San Francisco and Los Angeles; Matrons and Patrons of 1920 from San Pedro, Fullerton, Inglewood, Alhambra and Los Angeles chapters.

After the close of the regular meeting, a short program was given, consisting of a violin solo by Mr. Hipp, accompanied by Miss Hassun, a Russian dance by Miss Lois Naudain, and a vocal solo by Florence Rattray.

A delicious supper was then served in the banquet room. The special guests for the evening were seated at a large round table, in the center of which was a miniature Japanese garden. The favors consisted of small Japanese incense burners. The table was also decorated with beautiful bouquets of pink rosebuds. The members of Glen Eyrie were seated at three large tables along the sides of the hall, facing the guests' table. Mrs. McPherson was the Chairman in charge of arrangements for the supper. She was ably assisted by Mesdames Deal, Parke, Burke, Pulliam, Echols, Davis, Tower, Misses Harriet Nichols and Della Echols, Messrs. Deal, Rattray, Booth, Tower and Pulliam, all of whom graciously served the many guests.

New Realty Co.

Wm. A. Heitman of Los Angeles was the guest of Mrs. Ella Richardson, 525 South Central avenue, Thursday. He is the head of the Wm. A. Heitman Co. real estate, and is making arrangements to establish a branch office in Glendale, so favorably does he regard this city as a business opportunity. This company will handle the Richardson tract property and the Stough ranch near Burbank, hence the necessity for a Glendale office, which will be located with Harry Chase for the first few weeks and it is then the intention of the company to build for itself. Edward Storch, one of the salesmen, has already located in Glendale with his family and Robert Crozan will follow his example shortly.

P. A. C. Moore Here

P. A. C. Moore of Oakland is spending a few days in Los Angeles with his daughters, Mrs. O'Neill and Mrs. Page, and pays daily visits to Glendale, the old home, promoting the sale of his 7 1/2-acre ranch on East Windsor Road. Mr. and Mrs. Moore and their five sons lived on this ranch for a number of years, running a dairy part of the time. They are now engaged in the manufacture of a maple-flavored syrup made of cane sugar, in Oakland, and are prospering. They have just put up a new factory building 57x100 feet. Mr. Moore says.

Sail for Japan

Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Salisbury, who have been visiting their parents, H. R. Salisbury and wife of 1106 North Central avenue for several days, left Thursday night for San Francisco and will sail on the steamer Nanking for Japan tomorrow. Mr. Salisbury goes to Tokyo, as manager of the Allied Machinery Company of America. There are 15 branch offices and salesrooms in Japan, with headquarters in Tokyo. Last year Mr. and Mrs. Salisbury were in England and he established branches for the company in London and Glasgow.

Entertain Artist

Mattison B. Jones and family of 208 South Brand boulevard had the pleasure of entertaining Olga Steeb, her mother and her husband, Prof. Chas. Hibach, after the concert on Friday evening. A delightful and informal time was spent with Miss Steeb, who is an old friend of the Jones family, and at present Miss Winifred Jones is considering herself fortunate to have the privilege of studying with Miss Steeb.

AUTO CRASH KILLS

FRED NAUJOKS OF L. A. RETURNING FROM PIRO WITH J. F. MCCLISH FATALITY HURT

Fred Naujoks, a dealer in used cars at 110 West Washington street, Los Angeles, was returning from up near Piro in a Ford roadster last evening, in company with J. F. McClish of 410 East Maple, when their lights failed, a little this side of Newhall. Mr. McClish said they were going about 20 miles an hour when suddenly he saw, about four feet away, a Ford truck, also without lights, coming toward them. He instinctively threw up his hands to guard his face, when the two machines came together with a crash. Mr. McClish received a severe scalp wound but his companion was so badly injured that he died 30 minutes after he reached the San Fernando hospital. His principal wound was a basal fracture of the skull. The body was brought to the L. G. Scovern Undertaking Co. establishment last night and an inquest will be held Tuesday. The driver of the truck was P. Solayyo, an Italian.

Endicotts Home

J. A. Endicott, wife and two little daughters of 308 North Central avenue arrived at home Thursday from a several weeks' visit in Coos Bay, Oregon, in and near which city Mr. Endicott's parents and several brothers and sisters live. They left here on August 10th, going to San Francisco by rail and thence to Coos Bay by boat. The city is not a large one but has a number of big lumber mills and cheese factories. Trout and salmon fishing is a great attraction to visitors and Mr. Endicott enjoyed catching a great many trout, leaving the salmon for expert trollers. He was one of a party of four who went deer hunting and brought down eight fine bucks. The return trip was made all the way by boat.

Dancing Party

Misses Olive Bell and Josephine Emery gave a party last evening at their home, 329 North Kenwood. The evening was spent in dancing and games. Those present beside the young hostesses were Misses Agnes and Eunice Caldwell, Ruth Waterman, Agnes Brown, Anna Merriken and Waunita Emery; Messrs. Jimmie Hill, Wm. Gibson, Jewel Stanley, Victor and Earl Smart, Swayne Van Weermer, Bob Browning, Clarence Kaiser, Clayton Holmes and Gilbert Emery.

MISS OLGA STEEB

HER PIANO RECITAL AND THE AMPICO PERFORMANCE PLEASE AUDIENCE

The High School auditorium was packed to the doors last evening by an eager throng of music lovers whom the fame of Olga Steeb's wonderful piano playing had attracted. It was an attentive and highly appreciative audience and Miss Steeb seemed to measure up to every expectation. The program was a varied one that displayed the young musician's versatility to the highest degree. The soft murmur of the lonely brook, the sighing of the summer breeze alternated with the rushing of a mighty torrent and the loud thunder peal as the magic fingers of the inspired pianist flew back and forth over the ivory keys. Touch and time were perfect.

After the pianiste had played the fourth number she dropped her hands to her lap and immediately the Ampico repeated the entire selection, note for note and tone for tone, all in perfect time. The keys of the piano were seen to fall and rise as if touched by unseen fingers and the melody flowed on in perfect rhythm. In the next to the last number, an Etude by Liszt, Miss Steeb first played the melody notes and the Ampico played an accompaniment, then this was reversed. Later, the Ampico played a complete reproduction of a part of Miss Steeb's performance. The closing number "Taran-tella," by Liszt, was so brilliantly played that Miss Steeb was recalled and graciously responded. During the evening a lovely bouquet was carried up from the audience and presented to her by a local admirer. The entertainment was given by the Fitzgerald Music Company, to demonstrate the Ampico and no admission was charged, only those holding complimentary tickets issued being admitted, however.

DELEGATES MEET IN GLENDALE
AND FORM STATE ORGANI-
ZATIONA meeting was held in Glendale
Thursday evening to perfect the organization of the California Horseshoe Club Association. The delegates were Messrs. Hoyt and George E.
Krinbill of Long Beach, Buckley and Sprague of Pasadena, W. M. Hol-man and F. J. Osborne of Glendale.
The name decided on was the California Association of Horseshoe Pitchers. A constitution and by-laws similar to those of other state organizations were adopted. Rules governing pitching, size of shoe used, and the like, adopted by the national association, composed now of the states of Nebraska, Michigan, California, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Ohio,
Indiana, Iowa and Kansas, were affirmed as governing this association.
Shoes are to weigh 2½ pounds each,be 7½ inches long, 7 inches in greatest outside width and the opening 3½ inches across. Stakes are to be 8 inches above ground and 40 feet apart. In pitching shoes must land 8 inches or less from stake or no points counted.The officers selected were Mr.
Hoyt of Long Beach, president; Mr.
Krinbill of Long Beach, secretary;
M. L. Smith of Pasadena, assistant secretary; Mr. Holman of Glendale, treasurer. It was decided to put up a stiff fight to land the 1922 convention and tournament at some point on this coast.At the national meet in Akron, Ohio, a few weeks ago, Denny Wilkins of Long Beach, representing California, won sixth prize out of forty-eight contestants, bringing home a silver cup and $50 in cash.
He was second in double ringers with ninety-five.The Glendale club expects to begin using the regulation 2½-pound shoe, adopted for the entire country, in a few days. The change from the 4-pound side heretofore used may cause some poor pitching for a time, but it is expected that all the players will soon round into shape. This club shows the largest membership, more than fifty. During the tourist season it numbered sixty-five.

Record Breaking Values on Dependable Merchandise Make This

The Greatest Sale in the History of the Store

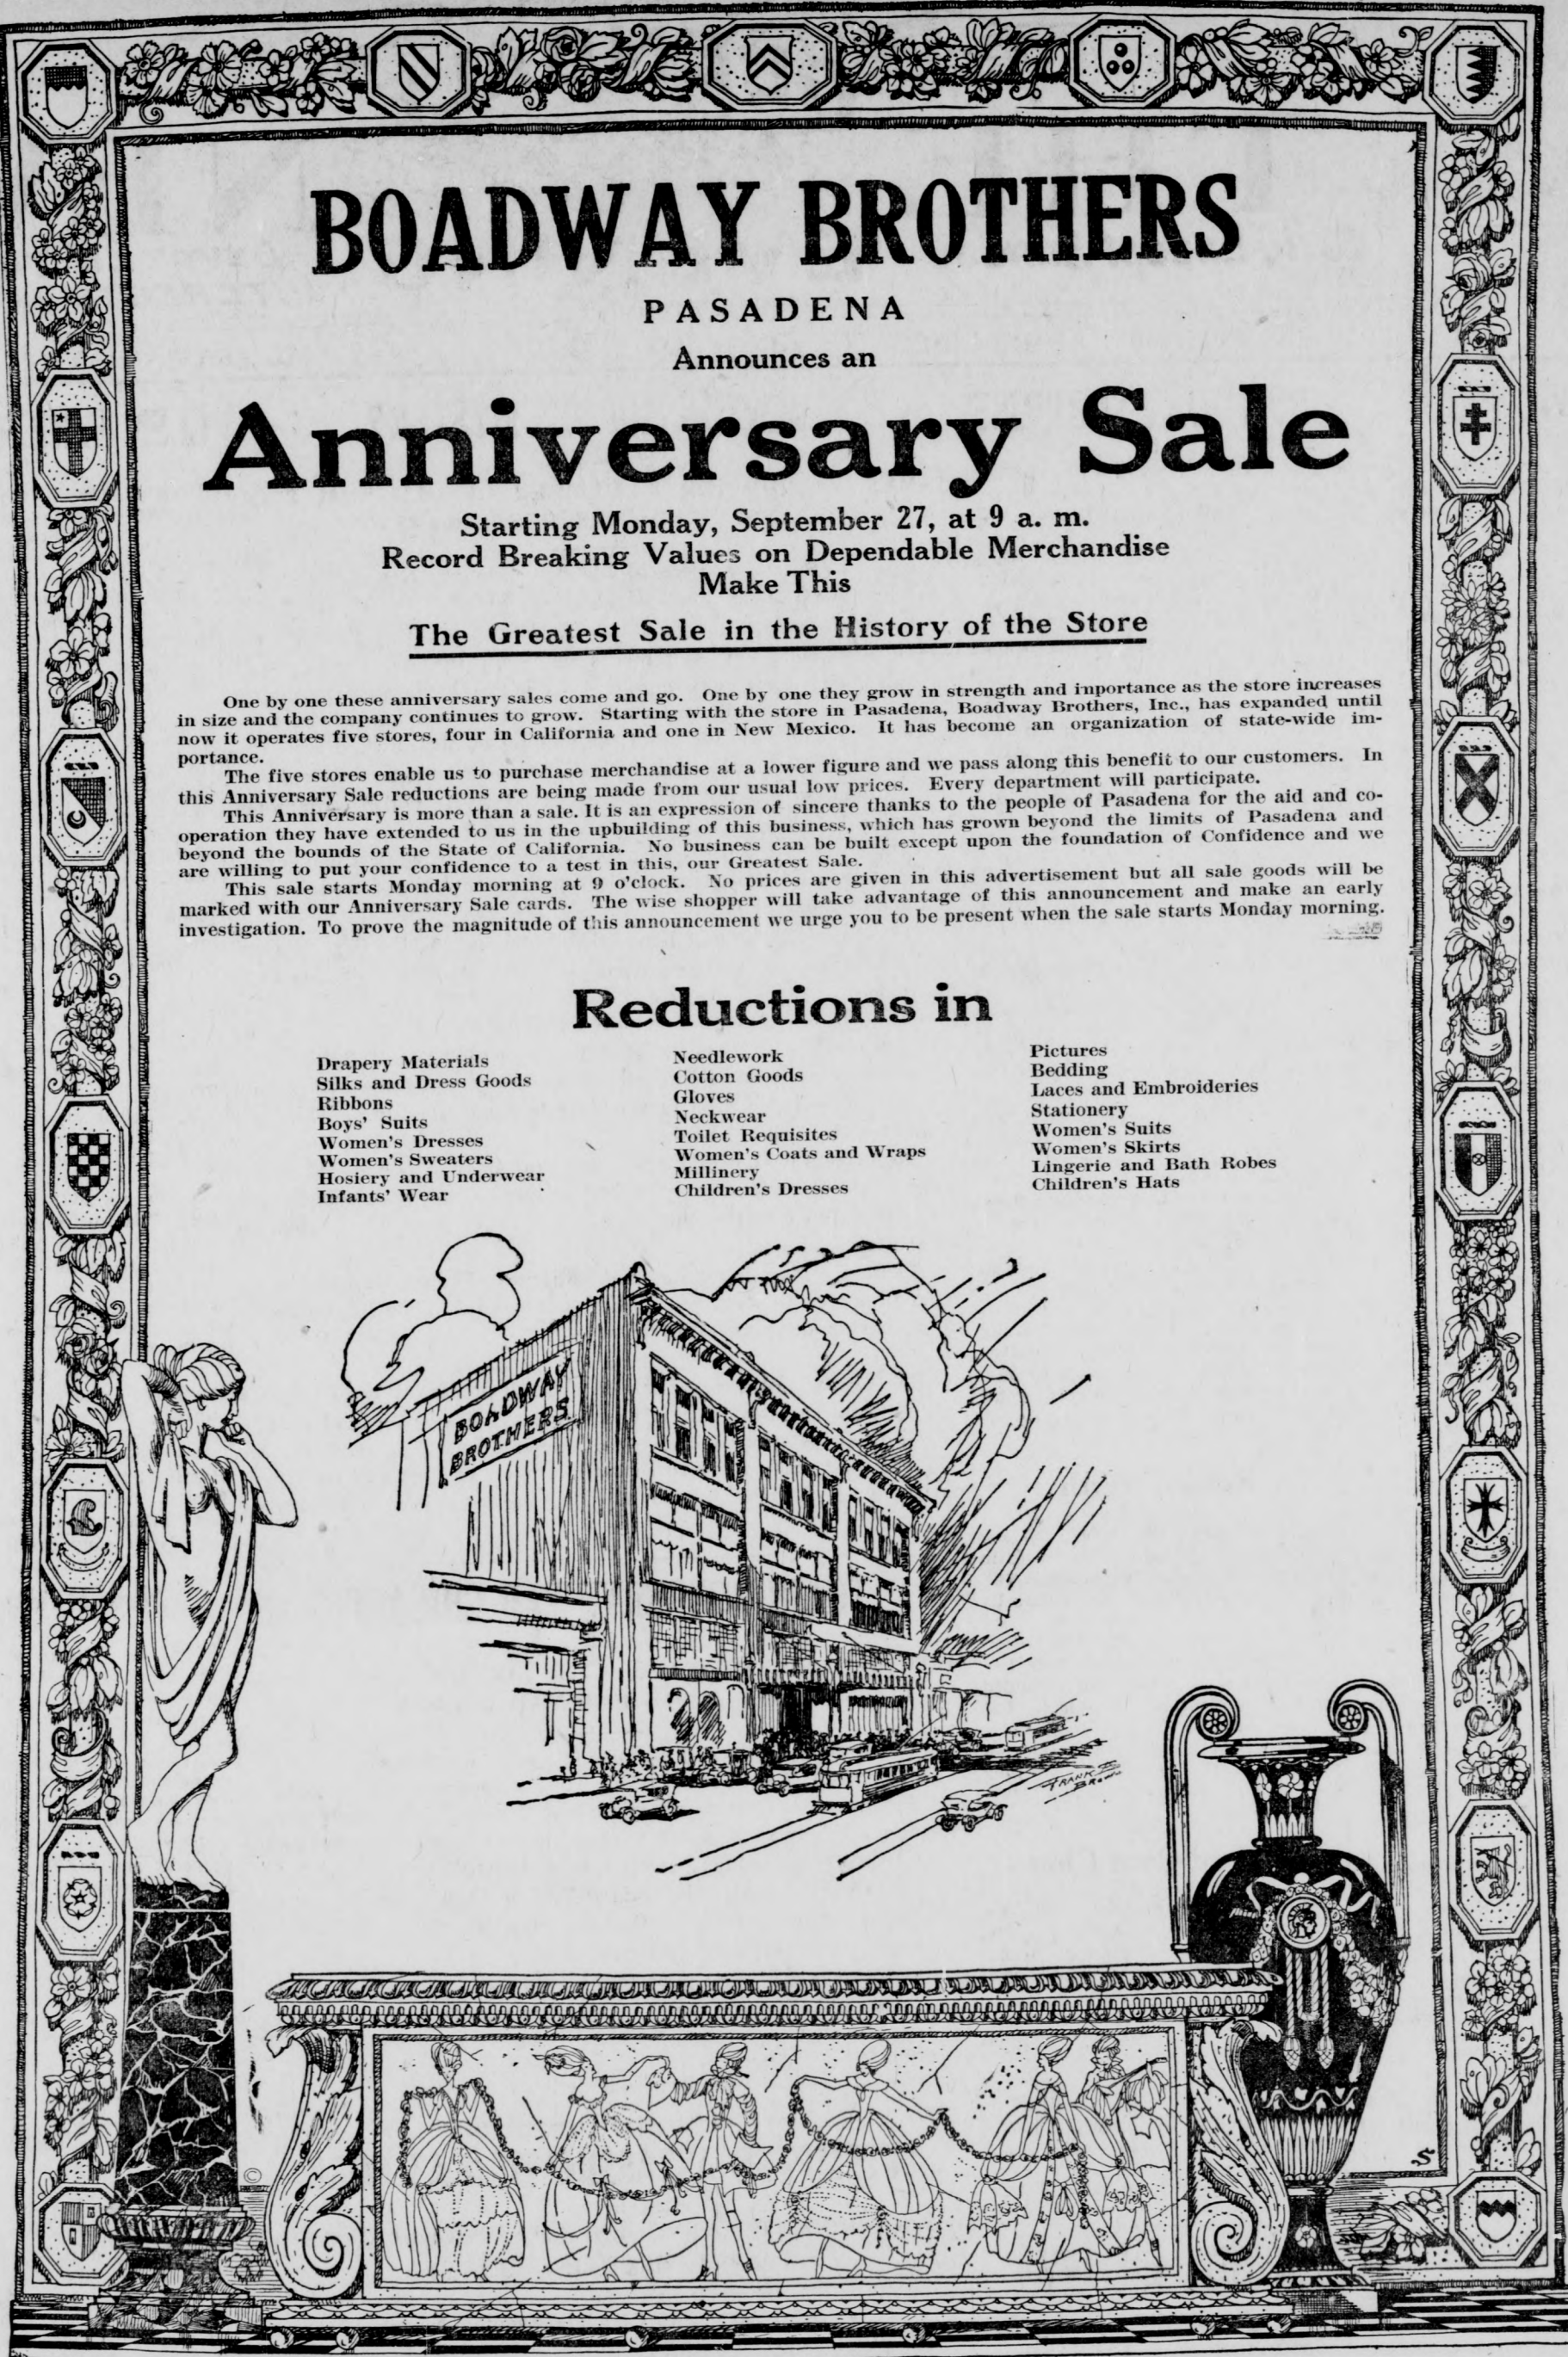

One by one these anniversary sales come and go. One by one they grow in strength and importance as the store increases in size and the company continues to grow. Starting with the store in Pasadena, Boadway Brothers, Inc., has expanded until now it operates five stores, four in California and one in New Mexico. It has become an organization of state-wide importance.

The five stores enable us to purchase merchandise at a lower figure and we pass along this benefit to our customers. In this Anniversary Sale reductions are being made from our usual low prices. Every department will participate.

This Anniversary is more than a sale. It is an expression of sincere thanks to the people of Pasadena for the aid and co-operation they have extended to us in the upbuilding of this business, which has grown beyond the limits of Pasadena and beyond the bounds of the State of California. No business can be built except upon the foundation of Confidence and we are willing to put your confidence to a test in this, our Greatest Sale.

This sale starts Monday morning at 9 o'clock. No prices are given in this advertisement but all sale goods will be marked with our Anniversary Sale cards. The wise shopper will take advantage of this announcement and make an early investigation. To prove the magnitude of this announcement we urge you to be present when the sale starts Monday morning.

NIGHT SCHOOLS

GOOD INVESTMENT FOR CITY AND WOULD PROVIDE
PLACE FOR YOUTH

Editor Glendale Evening News:—

There seems to be at the present time a unanimity of thought in Glendale respecting the need of a place where our young people can spend their evenings. I wish to call attention through your paper to ways and means—which could be available—where evenings could be not only pleasantly spent but the time profitably invested, yielding returns beyond computation. I refer to night schools for Glendale. We have the buildings and equipment and all the facilities of other communities where night schools are a great success. The mechanical arts would especially appeal to the young men. Machine shop, automobile repairing, mechanical drawing, wood-working, etc., also the commercial department, including shorthand, typewriting and book-keeping would appeal to young people of both sexes and some people who are no longer young. I know from actual canvass that night schools in Glendale would have a good enrollment and do a splendid work. It was reported in the Evening News a few days ago that the privately-conducted night school here in Glendale had more young men in attendance than girls. Word has just come from the Federal Bureau of Education, Washington, D. C., that the Polytechnic Evening High School of Los Angeles has the largest enrollment of any evening High School in the United States. A night school was opened in Denver in 1916 with provision for 200 scholars. Last year the enrollment was over 5000. And another feature which appeals to the taxpayer is that the cost of operating the night schools of California is largely paid out of the state fund. There is every reason for establishing night schools in Glendale.

OLGA STEEB

World-Famous Pianiste

Played in joint comparison with

Reproducing Piano

An Invitation

We most cordially invite all residents of Glendale to come to our Ampico Studios and hear this indescribable instrument in a program by the world's foremost pianists.

Proving by this comparison that her own renditions and the Knabe Ampico reproductions are as identical in every detail as an object and its reflection.

The audience, at first frankly skeptical of the power of any instrument to reproduce the ethereal qualities of tone color and the subtle minutiae of musicianship which defy even human attempts at imitation, sat utterly spellbound when, at the conclusion of Miss Steeb's personal performance, this MORE THAN HUMAN instrument continued alone and untouched, to give forth the very same splendors of tone and expression which but an instant before Miss Steeb's own fingers had invoked.

Miss Mary E. Emerson, a sister of Chas. Emerson, commercial agent of the Salt Lake Railway in Los Angeles, died September 22d at Mission Rest Home, on South San Fernando Road. Funeral services will be held this afternoon, 2 o'clock, in the L. G. Seavern Company chapel. The body will be taken to Bethesda, Ohio, later, for interment.

Mrs. Ed M. Lee of 345 North Belmont gave a spend-the-day party Friday. Her guests were Mesdames E. A. Lively and Jennie Steel, of North Central avenue; T. A. Bradley and his mother, of Hollywood. Mrs. Bradley, who is ninety-five years of age but very active, entertained her friends with interesting and quaint stories of "ye olden times."

Charles Beamon, twelve-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Beamon, of 203 North Maryland avenue, was seriously hurt at the Intermediate School building Friday. The accident occurred when a little companion, playing nearby, let go a pencil, which struck the Beamon boy forcibly on the eye. The attending physician says that the boy's sight will be saved if no infection sets in from the wound on the eyelid.

S. S. Teachers Meet

A meeting of the teachers of the Presbyterian Bible school was held Thursday evening. There was a full attendance and plans for the coming year were discussed, also plans for a record-breaking attendance at the Bible school on Rally Day, the first Sunday in October.

The church is considering the purchase of one of the stereopticon machines that were used in the Interchurch World Movement. One of these machines has been offered at a bargain, and will be demonstrated to the church members the evening of Rally Day.

NEW BUILDING OF THE GLENDALE SANITARIUM AND HOSPITAL, THE FIRST UNIT OF WHICH IS NOW BEING CONSTRUCTED

This institution is founded on the principle that nature alone can cure; that health, like disease, must come gradually by a process of growth and change; that at all times the body is working to maintain health and strength and when pain or disorder appears the proper functioning of the body is being prevented. This we correct and so put the body in a position to heal itself.

Are you tired, ill or sorrowing? Would you come here for treatment or rest? Your case will be given individual attention and nature's own aids to health, air, water, light, heat, electricity and a proper diet will be used to restore you.

WHAT'S UNDER HOOD

STEPHENS SALIENT SIX MEETS APPROVAL OF LOS ANGELES COUNTY OFFICIALS

"What's under the hood?" seems to be a question which purchasers are asking more and more before investing in a motor car. The mere fact that a car may be the last word in appearance is not considered sufficient evidence of worth to warrant a purchase. Of course, appearance is a factor to be considered, but the critical attitude of the buyer demands both beauty and staying power. It's what the car will do that counts. Economy of operation must be coupled with ability to turn out mile after mile of travel under any and all conditions. The engine must be so constructed as to obtain a maximum of power from the less volatile fuel which must be used today. The manufacturers of automobiles are constantly endeavoring to improve the engines of their cars, and it is a tribute to modern mechanical genius that such a state of perfection as exists today has been brought about.

As an example of the more critical attitude on the part of the buyer, the case of the Los Angeles county officials' purchase of cars for the sheriff's department might be cited. A number of different makes of cars assembled at the Beverly Hills racing course to be put over the track to "show their metal." The Stephens Salient Six performed in perfect style, maintaining an average of 56.85 miles per hour for twenty-five miles continuous running, and was as fresh at the end of the run as at the beginning.

As a result of these tests, four Stephens touring models were selected by the county officials for use by the sheriff's office, where a quick start and absolute dependability are necessary at all times.

Between January and August of this year, Columbus, Ohio, auto owners, or insurance companies, have lost $175,875. There are 211 of 307 autos stolen thus far this year to be recovered.

PUNCTURE VINE

LURKING ON THE HIGHWAYS FOR THE TIRES OF THE UNWARY MOTORIST

The last ten years have witnessed the rapid spread in California of a vicious weed pest which the motorists of this state cannot afford to ignore. This is the puncture vine, Tribulus terrestris. This plant produces a multitude of burs with sharp spines about the length of a carpet tack, so disposed that however the bur may fall, one spine will always point upward. These spines will easily puncture a bicycle tire, and will pierce an automobile tire the tread of which is somewhat worn.

This weed was probably introduced into the United States from the Mediterranean region in ships' ballast, was brought by the railroads into California, and has found in the hot dry climate and fertile soil of the interior valleys conditions even more favorable to its growth than its native desert habitat.

From a few small patches in the vicinity of Bakersfield ten years ago the puncture vine has been carried along the highways and railroad rights of way until it is now abundant throughout Kern, Kings and parts of Tulare and Fresno counties, and patches of it occur in Madera, Merced, Stanislaus and San Joaquin counties. It is following the railroads into Los Angeles, San Bernardino, Orange and Riverside counties, and infestations have been reported in Butte, Yolo, Tehama, Yuba and Glenn counties.

From the rapidity of its spread in the Upper San Joaquin Valley since it was first reported, it is to be expected that the puncture vine will continue to extend its limits until something is done to check it. No effective means of eradication is at present known. Such means can be determined only through systematic investigation. The State Department of Agriculture is now preparing for a state-wide campaign to control the pest.—Touring Topics.

AUTO INSURANCE

CALIFORNIA AUTO OWNERS ENJOY RATES 100% LOWER THAN OTHER STATES

A situation of unprecedented national significance has arisen in auto insurance circles whereby the motorists of a single state are selected as the target for cheaper insurance rates at least 100 per cent less than those of any state in the Union.

Why should California automobile owners enjoy insurance rates which are 100 per cent lower than the rates in Montana, Washington, Oregon or any other state which go into effect on October 1st as the result of the recent announcement from the conference of the board companies in New York City?

That this fact is true was announced yesterday by officials of the Inter-Insurance Exchange of the Automobile Club of Southern California in Los Angeles, an organization which provides its members with insurance at cost rates and without profit.

Cheaper insurance rates for California motorists and, double the amount of the previous rates for the motorists of all other states was the decision reached by the board companies in the recent New York conference, according to official reports made public by insurance officials throughout the country.

This situation has raised a storm of inquiry which at present is nationwide, and one explanation for it has been made public in an interview with directors and officers of the Southern California motoring club, which is the largest organization of its kind in the world at present, having approximately 45,000 members. Of these, more than 30,000 are insured through the club's exchange.

It is this form of co-operative insurance, existing between the car owners themselves, which has caused California to become a "key" state in the endeavor of the board insurance companies to check the advance of co-operative insurance, which is being adopted by automobile clubs

Consistency in Performance.
"It's under the Hood."

Whatever the competition, the leadership in the medium priced field is always maintained by the STEPHENS SALIENT SIX. Stephens performance is repeated year after year, with a consistency which demonstrates its high "caliber" beyond doubt.

WINNER—1918—Yosemite Economy Run, receiving class cup and sweepstakes trophy for best gas, oil and water record, REGARDLESS OF CLASS.

WINNER—1919—Yosemite Economy Run, class cup for the best performance in medium price class.

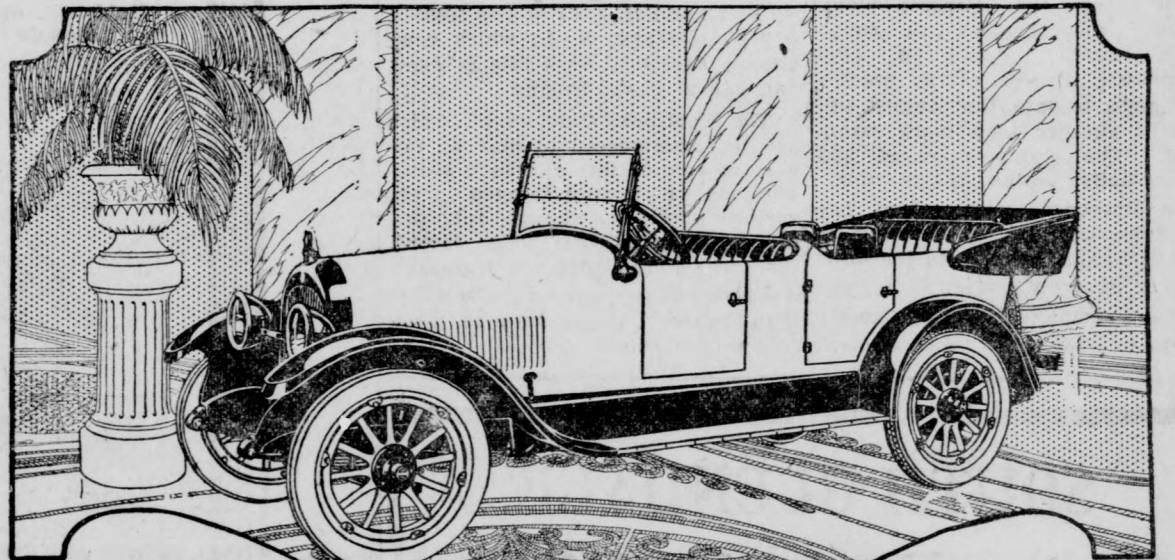

WINNER—1920—Yosemite Economy Run, over all sixes in medium price class.

WINNER—1920—"Rim-of-the-World" Economy Run, over all cars in medium price class, capturing class cup for the best record.

WINNER—1920—Sacramento-Lake Tahoe Economy-Reliability Run—with a perfect score the Stephens won the sweepstakes cup for the best performance, REGARDLESS OF CLASS—24 makes of cars in competition.

OJAI GRADE—In high gear the Stephens climbed the famous Ojai Grade, setting a new record for high-gear work.

BEVERLY HILLS RACING COURSE—1920—The Los Angeles County officials picked the Stephens Salient Six after this test—17 other cars were entered and only one other car got a "look-in" besides the Stephens.

throughout the country, declare officials of the Inter-Insurance Exchange, which, so far as America is concerned, was the pioneer organization in the field of insurance for club members at cost rates.

Beginning with October 1st, according to latest reports, it will cost $112 to insure a certain popular make of automobile against collision, for instance, in Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Arizona or any of the western states, whereas it will cost the motorists of California $48.65 to insure the same make of car.

In the eastern states the higher rate of insurance maintains at the present time.

According to reports received by the Automobile Club in Los Angeles, the co-operative form of auto insurance is spreading rapidly in popularity, and several large clubs throughout the west and east are now taking up, through their boards of directors, the proposition of establishing insurance departments similar to that in operation in Southern California, following an investigation of the high rates of insurance imposed upon automobile owners elsewhere in America.

In regard to the rates on fire and theft insurance, so far as autos are concerned, there is every indication, declare Automobile club officers, that these will follow the collision insurance rates in a steady climb everywhere but in California.

FORD TRACTOR

EXPERIMENTED TWELVE YEARS
TO PERFECT IT; 150,000
NOW IN USE

Word comes from Henry Ford's tractor plant near Detroit, that Fordson production figures are jumping monthly, and that nearly half of the tractors now being manufactured in this country are Fordsons.

When the motor wizard began experimenting with tractors some twelve years ago, he is credited with having promised farmers a machine that would make farming "what it ought to be—the most pleasant and profitable profession in the world." Deviating from old tractor beliefs and manufacturing customs, he set about building a light, mobile tractor, a tractor not especially for use of big farms and ranches, but so constructed that it would handle the work on smaller farms. The principles of manufacturing and selling which had brought the Ford car to success are now applied to the tractor. As a result, nearly 150,000 Fordsons have gone into service; approximately one-third of the tractors in use in the United States are Fordsons—this, in spite of the fact that the Fordson has been on the market only a little over two years.

June was a great month in the Fordson industries, but it has been eclipsed in July. Not content with breaking production records once, the five Fordson assembling plants shattered the mark during July by turning out 9766 Fordsons or more than 617 more than in June. Never before have the Fordson plants smashed records on two consecutive months, and the hope is expressed in view of the production figures to date, that August will see still another high mark established. The plants averaged 375 tractors daily, against 351 in June.

The Dearborn, Mich., plant has been doing the bulk of the work. In addition to supplying parts for work at other Fordson plants, 4188 tractors were completed, which is nearly half the number which broke the rec-

Goodyear Car Line

Workmen at the new plant of the Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company of California, Los Angeles, are now able to reach the plant by street car from any part of the city, due to the completion of a new line, somewhat over a mile in length, from the site of the old Ascot grandstand at 61st and South Park to the Goodyear general offices on Central avenue. The dismantling of the Ascot race track and the extension of the car line that formerly served it, necessitated the tearing up and transferring of much trackage and the construction of a mile of new railway, but through the complete co-operation of the big tire company and the street railway company, the project has been consummated, and the army of workmen provided with adequate means of reaching the main entrance of the plant. Street construction continues, however, for the tire company is adding 20 feet to the width of the street and beautifying it by planting trees and shrubbery.

Royal Cords

Platt's Tire store is featuring the Royal Cord Tire which Mr. Platt says is all its name implies. He says that no tire has it on the Royal Cord as far as cost per mile is concerned, which is the principal thing to consider in buying tires. "Royal Cords are best for any car," says Mr. Platt.

ord. At St. Louis, 2101 tractors were turned out, 2341 at Des Moines, 810 at Kearney, N. J., which commenced assembly work late in June, and 236 at Cork, Ireland.

The Hamilton, Ohio, plant, which has just commenced to play an important role turned out 2470 transmissions which were shipped to the various plants. Although July saw the breaking of the June record, there was no day upon which a greater number of tractors were assembled than the record day of June 29, when 545 were finished.

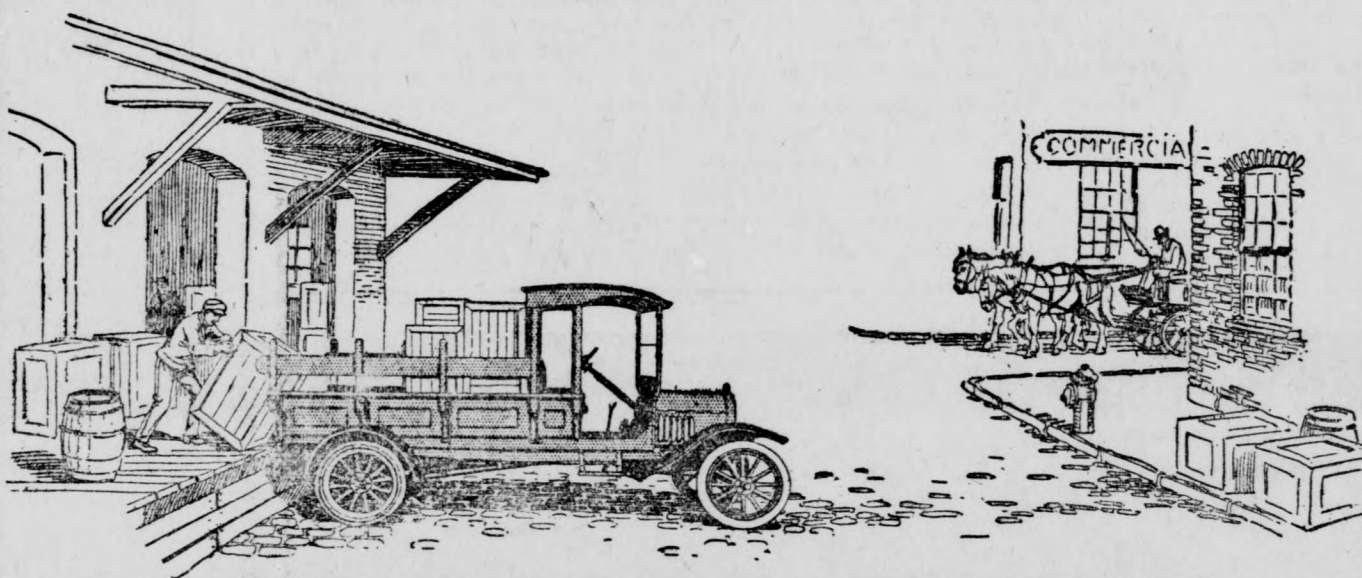

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

To the business man, retail or wholesale; to the manufacturer; to the commission man; to the trucking company, the Ford Model T One Ton Truck makes an irresistible appeal because it has in its chassis all the merits of the original Ford car; the wonderful Ford Model T motor, the dependable Vanadium steel chassis and the manganese bronze worm-drive. A strongly built truck that serves satisfactorily and lasts in service. If these statements were not true, the demand for Ford trucks wouldn't be so constantly on the increase. AUTO AS AID

THOUSANDS FROM NEAR AND FAR VISITED TRACTOR SHOW
BY THIS MEANS

We, in California, are often accused of talking "big" about the number and variety of automobiles seen on our magnificent highways and city streets, but the most skeptical hearer of such claims would have been ready to admit the truth of the biggest stories told him on this subject had he been at the National Tractor and Implement Show in Glendale this week. During the six days in which this biggest and most wonderful of all tractor shows ever held has been in progress in beautiful Verdugo Woodlands every highway leading to this beautiful park with its wealth of noble trees and clear, sparkling stream flowing 'neath their shade, has been thronged with autos of every description and make, thousands upon thousands of them. It was designed at the start to have parking space for 7000 autos and certainly more than that number have visited the Woodlands nearly every day.

It is not saying too much to affirm that a considerable part of the success of the Tractor Show, in point of daily attendance, at least, has been due to the ubiquitous auto. And so perfect were the arrangements for handling the vast number of them expected that not a visitor by auto to the city of Glendale has been injured on her streets or in the parking grounds.

There were autos in Glendale this week from more than half the states of the Union, the majority of the visiting ones being from states west of the Rocky Mountains, of course, Northern California, Arizona, Nevada, Oregon and Washington were heavily represented. During the week of September 20th to 26th all roads in California led to Verdugo Woodlands, Glendale.

Auto Drivers' Test

How long will it be before there will be a law requiring every person to pass a test as to mental and physical fitness before he is allowed to drive an automobile on the public thoroughfares? There is an urgent need for such a law now. If a law of this kind were existent it would be the cause of reasonable preparation for qualification on the part of prospective automobile owners.

Now the main thought in the mind of the would-be auto purchaser is where to get sufficient money to make the first payment on the purchase. A knowledge of driving is a second consideration. Almost everybody agrees that there should be a school of instruction for men and women to attend who are to become users of automobiles, and while it might not be within the limitations of the law to compel attendance at such a school, yet it would be within the scope of the law to require men and women to pass a test before being allowed to drive, and the school would afford a means for qualification.

Gypsy Tours

Overwhelming evidence of the popularity of motorcycles in the West as touring vehicles is contained in the array of motorcycle tours that have been held in many western cities this summer. Motorcycle enthusiasts of Seattle, Portland, Tacoma, Spokane, Sacramento, San Francisco, Oakland, Los Angeles and Denver, have all had their annual "Gypsy Tours" as they are commonly known in the motorcycle world, with the number entries running from 30 to 500 cars over courses ranging from 200 to 500 miles.

Most of the tours have been two and three day jaunts in charge of regularly appointed tour masters. A system of awarding points for best consistent performance determined the winners of the various tours. All of the events were encouraged and given co-operation by the Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company of California and prizes consisting of Goodyear tires and tubes awarded to the winners.

Long Auto Trip

HONOLULU, Sept. 7. (By Mail to United Press)—Four submarines now here claim to have made the longest trip ever taken by a fleet of under water boats unattached to the mother ship. The United States R boats 11, 12, 13 and 14 reached Pearl Harbor after an 8,000 mile trip from the Atlantic. The last stop on the mainland was made at San Pedro. The officers and men were worn out after their trip as little opportunity for sleep was afforded on the Pacific.

Reckless Driver—"Hear them cylinders knockin'?"

Timid Passenger—"It's not the cylinders, it's my knees."—Penn State Froth.

Got His Money's Worth

A motorist was stopped by a policeman for speeding, whereupon he became angry and called the policeman an ass. After he had paid his fine, the judge reproved him for what he had said to the officer.

"Then I musn't call a policeman an ass?" he said.

"Certainly not," said the judge. "You must not insult the police."

"But you wouldn't mind if I called an ass a policeman, would you?"

"Why, no, if it gives you any satisfaction," answered his honor, with a smile.

The motorist turned to the man who had arrested him. "Good day, policeman," he said, and immediately left the courtroom.—Boston Transcript.

Swords and Plowshares

Germany, shut from a supply of raw materials with which to feed her industries, is resorting to maneuvers that recall war days and their strategy. Germany has offered cash aggregating 200,000,000 marks for rifles, machine guns and cannon, held by the civil population. One purpose is to demonstrate to the world sincerity in the promise to disarm, the other is to secure the metal which will be used for making needed agricultural implements and machinery parts.

The temptation is alluring, but the people who hold the rifles, machine guns and cannon have so far refused to exchange them for money. The government's attempt to turn Germany's war sword into plowshares literally may result in a failure unless a means so far not discovered is utilized to bring the minds of the people into harmony with official programs.

It is said that millions of rifles, thousands of machine guns and cannon, and scores of thousands of service revolvers are still in the hands of civilians, constituting the main feature of French suspicion that Germany has no intention of following the disarmament terms of the peace treaty although formally accepted and ratified by signature.

But aside from the political factor, Germany needs all the metal supplies she can obtain, and insignificant as the tonnage from this source may be regarded, it will nevertheless be a valuable nucleus. There is not much prospect of success until the minds of the people and government find some common point of meeting.

The speech crop seems to be running about two lengths ahead of the peach crop.

The person who lays away a few American dollars these days will have reason to appreciate his foresight.

Butterflies to England

Certain butterflies maintain themselves precariously in our rainy climate, writes a correspondent of the London Times, and are periodically reinforced by immigration from overseas. Unlike the regular immigration of birds in spring, these movements of butterflies occur at no fixed intervals—some almost annually and others after varying lapses of years.

Though butterflies are emphatically creatures of the sun, few species will endure great drought, and there seems little doubt that the excursions of their countless swarms which occasionally astonish the seafarer, are due to the oncoming of heat and aridity in their country of origin, which deprive them of moisture and their prospective young of green food.

Even the drought of an English July will sometimes drive the common blue and small copper butterflies from the toasted pastures and send them wandering through shady gardens, with their watered lawns, and the vast clouds of butterflies which are sometimes seen crossing the Mediterranean from North Africa, or the English Channel from the coast of France, are exiles driven by thirst, seeking cooler lands.

In England the most regular of these butterfly immigrants is the large and beautiful species known as the painted lady. This has never been discovered asleep in hiding in this country during the winter, like the peacock butterfly and other members of its tribe; nor does it pass the winter here in any other of the stages of a butterfly's transformation. There is good reason to believe that it never winters with us, and that the painted ladies which usually appear in May or June are immigrants from the Continent. We see them basking on dry footpaths, often returning to the same spot again and again, or else feasting on clover blossoms, ripe for mowing. In due course of time they lay their eggs on thistles, and after a few weeks' growth as caterpillars and a short period of quiescence as chrysalides, the butterflies of the new generation are on the wing in August and September.

The pink-flushed brown of their marbled and brocaded wings is often much richer than that of their parents in June, for in them it was often bleached by travel and fierce foreign sunshine to a light reddish tan.

Beautiful, indeed, are these native painted ladies, as they circle at the autumnal scabious heads, or the dahlias ranged in the garden, and their end is a mystery. If they seek some dark hiding place, like the rest of their tribe, it has never yet been discovered; all we know is that they do not reappear in early spring as their kindred do.

Harmless to Hogs

I was talking with a Nevada mining man, now on a visit to Boston, and he told me that on his place in the mountains he kept a number of pigs which "proved useful in driving away all the rattlesnakes in the vicinity of the camp."

"The bite of a snake never harms a pig, no matter how poisonous the snake's fangs may be, for the pig is encased in an armor of fat," said the miner. "You would be surprised to see how nimble a pig can be; and when it chases a snake, it catches him every time."

"The pigs like to eat the snakes and tear them in half with their feet. No matter how many snakes a pig eats, it does not hurt him, and the pork from such a pig is just as good and harmless as any you get in the east here."—Boston Post.

LENDALE

Romance has attended this fair section of the South since the long-ago, that happy, care-free era of California's history when the site of our now thriving city was a part of the big land grant given by the king of Spain to the Verdugo family, up to this day when many who are living in less-favored sections of the country are turning their eyes Glendaleward and planning and longing to make their homes in this garden spot, the city that has made the largest per cent of growth of any municipality in the land, with no industrial incentive, its great attraction being its right to the title, "City of Homes."

Believing that many of you who are our guests this week will consider becoming residents of Glendale we offer these few facts that we think will be of interest to you.

Glendale is especially favored as to location. Her charming setting in the foothills with the higher ranges of mountains rising above is often commented upon. Her proximity to Los Angeles, being distant only a half hour's ride by trolley is an advantage that is not to be overlooked. Two main boulevards lead from the larger city and another and shorter road is now being paved. Glendale's altitude of 600 feet; her clear air and delightful climate tempered by breezes from the Pacific that find access through the Ivanhoe Pass; her proximity to the beaches and mountains are all features that add to the delight of living here.

Glendale's municipal government is organized with special reference to the needs of a rapidly-growing city. There are branches to care for any problem that might arise in such a city, all under the care of a City Manager, acting under the direction of the Board of Trustees. There is a department of public utilities, a department for the improvement and maintenance of streets, a health department that is watchful of sanitary and health conditions, well-organized police and fire departments, and a forestry department devoted to the propagation of trees for parkway planting, and to the care of trees already growing in parkways.

Living costs in Southern California are lower than elsewhere in the United States according to those who come here from other sections. Glendale enjoys this natural advantage along with her sister cities and in addition she has the distinction of furnishing electricity and water at a lower rate than any other city in California. This is due to the fact that the municipality several years ago purchased these utilities and organized a department of public service which has been conducted in a way to give the people the best possible service at the lowest possible rate consistent with good business. The people have never been taxed for the purchase of these utilities, the department being managed in such a way that it has been able to pay off all indebtedness as it came due.

Glendale's growth has astonished even her own people. Twenty years ago Glendale was not an incorporated city and hence does not appear in the census figures of that year, but those who lived here then say the population could not have been more than a few hundred. In 1910 the census report gives Glendale a population of 2742 and in 1920, 13,536, an increase of 393 per cent. Making an estimate from the registration of voters we know that Glendale's population today is in the neighborhood of 20,000. From the water and light connections that are being made it has been determined that the population is increasing at the rate of 5000 a year and figuring on the basis of a population of 20,000 this means an increase of 25 per cent a year.

In July of this year Glendale was sixth among California cities in the value of building permits issued, the order being Los Angeles, San Francisco, Oakland, Long Beach, Pasadena, Glendale, Pasadena's lead over Glendale being less than $33,000. Glendale's figure was $302,970 giving her the proud record of doing more building in proportion to her population than any city in the United States. In August of this year Glendale's building permits amounted to $260,785. The total building in Glendale since the close of the war or from January 1, 1919 to September 15, 1920, totals $2,680,633.

Glendale is known everywhere as a clean town, her broad paved streets being the marvel of all visitors. Brand Boulevard, a paved street 120 feet in width extends through the center of the city from the mountains to the city limits of Los Angeles, a distance of 2.9 miles. Being jealous of the reputation of the city, Glendale people very generally keep their premises in neat condition. When lot owners are non-resident or for any other reason are careless in this respect the city looks after cleaning the weeds from the property.

In educational progress our city is not backward. A fine high school, ten grade schools in various sections of the city, and a church school take care of the needs of the young, while two city libraries are well patronized. Glendale has one of the largest woman's clubs in the state and other clubs, lodges and fraternal organizations thrive here. Two splendid new hospital buildings are now in course of construction.

Glendale is a clean city, morally. It is essentially a church town, nearly all denominations being represented. There has always been a determined effort on the part of the people as a whole to exclude anything that would tend to lower the moral tone of the community.

We welcome you, visitors to the Tractor Show and invite you to become residents of Glendale. If that is impossible, at least come again.

Although an Oregon woman has just completed a 40-day fast, nobody thought of sending out daily bulletins regarding her condition.

An efficiency expert is a person who is able to show that nearly every other person is making a failure of his system.

Move Right In FIVE NEW HOMES

ARE UNDER CONSTRUCTION NOW—ONE OF THEM COMPLETED AND READY TO MOVE INTO AT ONCE

These houses are on North Isabel street, in the section that is coming so rapidly to the front. They are attractive Colonial bungalows.

Why should you rent and move about from one undesirable house to another when you could own a beautiful, new bungalow in the most rapidly growing city of the United States and in one of the most choice sections of that city; in other words, in the northeast section of Glendale which is being rapidly developed on account of its choice location.

We are building extensively in Bellehurst, the beautiful tract recently opened in the northeast part of Glendale. This part of the city is developing perhaps faster than any other and this is due to the natural features that make it especially desirable as a residence section. Its elevation of 600 feet, its proximity to the foothills and the view of the mountains and of the entire San Fernando Valley, which it commands, are all features that have much weight with prospective home owners.

LOTS IN THIS TRACT ARE ALL GONE—WHY NOT MAKE SURE OF A HOME IN THIS BEAUTIFUL SECTION OF THE CITY BEFORE IT IS TOO LATE?

Here Are Some of Our Bargains

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

JACKSON, O., Sept. 25.—An explosion at the plant of the Jackson Iron and Steel Company today cost the lives of three men and seriously injured six others. The cause of the explosion was undetermined. One of the furnaces gave way and hot iron rushed down on the workers without warning.

Colleges Overcrowded

Unable to accommodate the numbers that have applied for admission, universities and colleges face a situation that troubled but few until within the last year. There have been a few schools that heretofore were sought by numbers in excess of capacity, but this year practically every institution of standing has a greater number of applicants for admission than it is well able to accommodate. The situation presents a real problem. The facilities for acquiring higher education are inadequate to meet the demand. Some institutions are turning away students by the hundreds. Others are doing their best to stretch facilities to accommodate all possible, but there is a limit to such expansion.

The young man or young woman who is prepared to attend college cannot well afford to delay the start a year, especially since the situation may not be better next year. Raising the standard of admission might lessen the number of applicants, but while that might help in one way it would do as much harm in another. It is not by any means true that those who pass the best entrance examinations prove the best students.

It seems inexcusable that any who seek higher education should be denied it because there is no room for them. But neither could the great increase of applicants have been foreseen and provided for in advance. In fact the recent premium placed on brawn as contrasted with brain might have been expected to diminish rather than increase the numbers seeking college training. The condition may seem anomalous, but it is real. The only remedy, if the demand for higher education continues, lies in more high class institutions.

Modern bungalow, close in, and on one of Glendale's best streets.

The living room is extra large with fireplace and many which can be used for a bedroom, a very attractive sun parlor, 2 large sunny, cheerful and airy bedrooms. The breakfast room is a work of art, kitchen with tile sink, a fine bath room. The closets in this house are large and there are plenty of cupboards also.

The front is beautifully improved with lawn, flowers and shrubbery. The back yard is like a picture garden. Beautiful rose covered trellis, fish pond and fruit trees.

You will be impressed with this at first glance and convinced that this is a home place and not intended for marketing purposes.

Owner is called away and wants to sell, does not need the money but has priced to sell quickly.
